

Municipal signatories of the specimen resolution on the 2030 Agenda

© BBSR Bonn 2021

Municipal signatories of the specimen resolution „The 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development: Building Sustainability at the Local Level“ of the Association of German Cities and the German Association of the Council of European Municipalities and Regions as of December 2020

according to BBSR types of municipalities

number

- large cities (100,000 inhab. and more)
- medium-sized towns (20,000 up to below 100,000 inhab.)
- ▲ smaller-sized towns (10,000 up to below 20,000 inhab.)
- ▲ small towns (5,000 up to below 10,000 inhab.)
- rural municipalities

42
56
15
18
11

counties

22 associations

1

*Niebüll and Klixbüll are communities in Südtondern, which is classified as a small town.

Source: Engagement Global gGmbH - Service Agency Communities in One World (SKEW), Spatial Monitoring System of the BBSR
Geometry: municipalities and counties (generalised borders), 31/12/2019 © GeoBasis-DE/BKG
Author: A. Milbert